

TRADUKI LITERARY TRANSLATION WORKSHOP: Romanian Literature in Focus
Bucharest 2nd - 5th of September

The TRADUKI Network, together with its Romanian partners –the Romanian Ministry of Culture, Romanian Publishers Association and Romanian Literature Museum – is thrilled to invite you to the 3rd edition of TRADUKI literary workshop “Romanian Literature in Focus” which will take place in Bucharest from November 2nd to November 5th 2021.

The invitation is extended to all literary translators from Romanian into the following languages: Albanian, Bosnian, Bulgarian, Croatian, German, Macedonian, Montenegrin, Serbian, and Slovenian. Translators will work on a text excerpt from the novel Inocenții (Editura Humanitas, 2016) by Ioana Pârvulescu, winner of the European Literature Prize 2013.

The host of the workshop will be Georg Aescht who translated the novel into German (Wo die Hunde in drei Sprachen bellen, Zsolnay Verlag, 2021).

Translators who are interested in participating in the workshop are kindly asked to send in a short CV and a bibliography of all their translations from the Romanian language so far. We ask translators to send their submission to all 3 contacts listed below.

The maximum number of participants in the workshop is 6. All expenses, including transportation, accommodation and meals will be covered by the organizers.

Submission deadline: October 5th, 2021

The participants will be sent a short fragment from the novel Inocenții. Translators will be asked to prepare a first draft of their translation before the start of the workshop in Bucharest.

Contact persons: Andrej Lovšin (TRADUKI): andrej.Lovsin@s-fischer-stiftung.de, Alexandru Popescu (Ministry of Culture): alexandru.popescu@cultura.ro, Ioana Gruenwald (Traduki representative): ioana@headsomenet.ro.

IMPORTANT: The Workshop will take place with physical presence of workshop participants, the author and the host. All Covid-19-related safety measures, which will be in force at the moment of the workshop, will be respected. All participants are kindly asked to check themselves what the travel conditions are for entering Romania at the time of the Workshop. The organizers will do their best to help with any travel issues.
